Dear Mr. Knox:

Many thanks for your complete cooperation in making the Federal Micropower Symposium an administrative and security success. We have received many compliments on the attractive facilities, the absence of bureaucracy, and the sophisticated technical equipment that was made available for our use. The lion's share of the credit goes to you and to your staff, particularly Miss Delaware, Mr. Hafer, and the personnel of the Office of Technical Services.

Once again, Mr. Knox, thanks very much for your highly professional assistance.

Sincerely,
